

Chapter News

Southwest Georgia Chapter

May 2007

www.gscpa.org

Unsubscribe

Estate Tax Update with Mike Hoffman

This event will qualify for 1 hour of CPE.

On Thursday, May 17, 2007, at 9:30 a.m., Mike Hoffman will present an estate tax update that will qualify for an hour of CPE credit. Also, Tim DeRosier, vice president of sales with Jackson National, will be speaking on Annuities and Mutual Funds, and Drew Grifo, who works with Coventry, will speak on Life Settlements. These two speakers will not qualify for CPE credit. Lunch will be provided by Tim Smith and Associates. The event will be held at Southwind Plantation on US 27 south of Bainbridge. Click here for directions. There is no charge for this event, but please reply by calling (229) 246-1511 ext 0 to RSVP.

Nuts & Bolts of Governmental Accounting & Reporting Issues

This seminar will qualify for 16 hours of governmental A&A.

On Monday and Tuesday, June 4 and 5, 2007, at 8:30 a.m., Paul Glick will speak on governmental accounting and auditing at The Plaza Restaurant in Thomasville. The cost is $200 per person and lunch is included. Send your check payable to "SW Georgia Chapter of GA Society of CPAs" by May 25, 2007, to Roy H. Long, CPA, SW Georgia CPAs, PO Box 1362, Thomasville, GA 31799. Call Roy at (229) 228-5537 if you have any questions.

Chapter Officers

Your chapter officers for 2006 – 2007 are as follows. Please contact us with any requests or suggestions.

President – Jerry Maxwell

Vice President – Roy Long

Treasurer – Ashley Gardner

Secretary – Jimmy Douglas

Georgia Society of CPAs ~ 3353 Peachtree Road, Suite 400 ~ Atlanta, GA 30326